“Keep Calm and Serve an Ace”

Are you looking to improve your game? Do you play just for fun? Or are you just a plain fan of the game? Or are you looking to buy some tennis gear. No matter who you are love.com is the right place to be.

Visitors can learn all about tennis. They can learn about the history of tennis, the rules, the equipment, the strategies and etc. I plan to use a lot of pictures. It will also have information on various famous tennis players. I also plan to have links that will lead to other websites about tennis for visitors to explore.
